

Chief Selection Committee To Meet

The Police Chief Selection Committee is sponsoring a public hearing Tuesday April 24 at the Town Hall.

The meeting will provide an opportunity for Cohasset citizens to inform the committee of their hopes and expectations for the future of the Cohasset Police Department. A new police chief will be appointed by the Selectmen after current Chief Randolph Feola's retirement in July 1980. The selection will be made from a field of three candidates chosen by the Selection Committee.

Every Cohasset citizen is invited to assist in this important process. Members of the police force and other town departments, elected and appointed officials and private citizens are invited to speak briefly or submit written suggestions.

Among the questions the hearing will address are these: What does Cohasset expect of its Police Chief? Do we want primarily an administrator, a person highly trained in law enforcement, a person trained "on the job" here or elsewhere? Should our next chief be chosen from among members of our own department, or from outside the present force? What qualifications, skills and training do we regard as essential to this important role? What qualities of personality, character and public relations skills are important?

In the wake of a Town Meeting controversy over Civil Service in the Police Department, citizens may also want to address the issue of the lines of authority and accountability which will affect the work of our next chief of police.

More information on the hearing is available from the chairman of the Police Chief Selection Committee, Rev. John Benbow, at 393-0345 or 383-6697.

CCC Sponsors Trip To Showcase Home

The Cohasset Community Center will sponsor a bus trip Wednesday May 2, to the Decorator Showcase Home on the Forbes Estate in Milton.

Included in the $13.50 price of the trip will be luncheon served at the estate. The bus will leave the Community Center at 9 a.m. and return at 3.

For reservations call Peg Laugelle at 383-1086 before April 24.

Fessler Paintings On Display

Pastel portraits by Grethe Fessler of Cohasset are on exhibit at Marshfield Town Hall, sponsored by the North River Arts Society.

Ms. Fessler graduated from Northwestern University and the Moholy-Nagy School of Design in Chicago, Ill. She has studied with John Wheat, Clement Micarelli, Norman Baer and Albert Handell and belongs to the Silvermine Guild of Arts in Norwalk, Conn.

The exhibit will be up several more weeks and is open 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Mr. Shane will buy gold, silver, old furniture, old china & rugs.

Vandals Damage Four Cohasset School Buses

Several local juveniles were apprehended Sunday evening in connection with the tire slashing of four Cohasset school buses parked near the high school.

The youths were brought to headquarters and were released after questioning. None were in possession of a knife, police reported, which was the type of instrument thought to have been used in the vandalism.

Three buses had tire stems or sidewalls slashed on both front tires. One bus had one left front tire slashed.

In another incident reported later that night, police were summoned to a residence on Reservoir Road to investigate a complaint of youths entering the home bearing clubs.

An alleged fight broke out at the residence and three youths were later taken to South Shore Hospital with head injuries.

A Cohasset youth, Mark Goff, of Tupelo Road, was arrested for assault and battery with a dangerous weapon. A Hull juvenile was placed under protective custody.

Further investigation of both incidents is pending.

Weymouth Youth Arrested

In Attempted Burglary

A Weymouth juvenile was arrested at gunpoint by Patrolman Clifford Jones early Saturday morning in connection with a burglary at Keo's Cushing Auto Sales.

The next day a car reported stolen from Weymouth was found parked on the Keo property.

The youth was charged with breaking and entering in the night time, using a motor vehicle without authority, and being in possession of burglarious tools.

He was arraigned that morning at Quincy Juvenile Court; the case was continued to a later date.
